Armed Drill

C/1LT Boggs and C/MSG Adkins competed in the dual armed drill competition. Adkins says that next time around, the duo needs to work on being in sync and needs to practice more. Boggs and Adkins placed 2nd out of all the schools that participated.

Unarmed Drill

The unstoppable duo of C/2LT Cruz, and C/1SG Morrow attracted large crowds to their performance. The reaction from the crowd was astonishing. Many people were amazed by Cruz and Morrow's routine. The unarmed duo placed 1st once again.

Color Guard

Both our Color Guard teams had an amazing performance at the competition. C/SGT Brookshire said that she was blown away by both of the teams. "I am just so proud of my team right now" she said referring specifically to CG Team 2. C/1LT Boggs felt confident in the team placing in the competition. He also cited minor things to fix, but knows his team is capable of improving quickly. Both Color Guard Teams 1 and 2 placed 3rd in the competition.

P.T. Team

The P.T. Team did an amazing job. Team commander C/SGT Marsh said that his team went above and beyond both during practice and at the actual competition. He said that his team "did more than I expected them to do". Marsh did cite a lack of females on the team as an aspect to fix about the team. C/SGT Hughes got 1st place in the Iron Man competition.

Marksmanship

Team commander C/SGT Brown praised his team on their procedural performance, saying that “we didn’t have a single mistake”. Though the team didn’t perform as well as hoped, Brown said that this competition was more about getting his new shooters experienced and ready for the next competition. Preparation is key for their next competition, says Brown.
